WAY OF LEARNING ENGLISH INDEPENDENTLY

Why is it important for someone to speak English ? Because English plays an important role in communication among young generation. Day by day this generation realizes the importance of learning English. The majority of people find the ways of learning English by means of English courses where they will have to pay money for these courses and they will acquire knowledge in such a way. Attending these English courses a beginner will have to find a spare or appointed time of doing it before a work or after hours. He will have to do different kind of homework at home and do some kind of exercises in the course of a lesson in English courses. After a lesson a person will be a bit tired and he will have to go to a place of work or the other way around he will have to attend English courses after hours. It can affect a state of person in some way. But people forget about possibility of learning English in a different way by means of independent way of learning English. In this case they won't have to spend money on the English courses. A beginner can economize a great deal of money spending money on an english literature. It means he can learn English without leaving his place. It is a nice advantage for every single beginner. Nowadays it becomes popular to practise English in an oral way. Speaking skills are all – important for everyone.

8. In the first place a person can speak to someone in the course of conversation.
9. In the second place another person can listen to him.
10. In the third place they understand each other and they can keep conversation going.

Speaking skills cannot be acquired in an easy way. In order to acquire them every single person must deal with reading and grammar. It means they cannot exist in a separate way. Grammar influences understanding and learning of grammar tenses. Reading has impact on enlargement of reading skills and development of speaking skills. The more person reads the better he speaks.

What is the best way of doing it ?

- First and foremost a beginner must read information concerning English for half an hour. When a person reads it he broadens his visual memory.
- Secondly if a beginner read all sentences he would have to make up questions to sentences regarding the grammar tense or the other way around – to make up sentences to questions.

He will have to do it in an oral way. It must be done constantly every single day without stopping. But for desire it is impossible to learn English.

In order to achieve his objective a person must be hard – working not lazy. Laziness is the worst disadvantage for a person who wants to learn English. But every single person has to know the way of learning English.

Selection of literature. One can start with an adoptive literature like school books. It is easy for beginners to read and translate sentences, questions of texts from English into Russian. A beginner can cope with them.

Translation of sentences and questions from English into Russian gives a beginner possibility of enlarging a scope of words. A beginner has to apply a dictionary to translate sentences and questions.

Learning of words by heart after reading.

A search for person who speaks English.

11. When a person keeps to these factors he will do well at learning of English. He will overcome obstacles coming his way. He will succeed in speaking English in an oral way. Everything depends on him. The more he is hard – working the quickly his dream comes true. Because anybody doesn't want to fail in English at the beginning of the independent learning of English.
